

WANTED!!!

What to do for a gap year?

Teach English in China!

Contract term: September 2015- June 2016

Working place: Hunan, China

Requirements:

Native English speakers;
With bachelor degree or above;
Experiences related to children or teaching are preferred;
21~55 years old;
Open-minded, outgoing, enthusiastic, sociable, patient and responsible;

Welfare:

Free TEFL/TESOL training;
Free airport pickup;
10 months salary;
Free private apartment;
Low working stress: Around 20 hours a week, no work on weekends;
Paid winter vacation which lasts about one month.
Insurance covered;
Reimbursed return flight tickets;
Supported by local China office during the whole contract term.

What else to expect from this year:

The chance to be fully immersed in Chinese society;
Learn Chinese language and experience a different culture;
Travel around China during various Chinese holidays;
Travel in Asian countries during winter vacation;
Discover the possibilities of future career;

Define an amazing year in China by yourself!!!

Please contact Victoria Ren at vickicshn@gmail.com in China office for more information or send your resume with your recently head shot for applying.

Teaching-in-Hunan Program, P. R. China

Job overview Teaching Spoken English or specialized English for Chinese students, cultivating their interests and building up their confidence in English learning, and improving their spoken English. Communicating with local teachers and help them with their English instruction.

Contract Period 10 months
Contract: September 2015 – June 2015

Positions Spoken English teachers mainly in middle schools and high schools, a few in elementary schools, universities and colleges.

Locations Hunan Province, including cities of Changsha, Changde, Yiyang, Yueyang, Xiangtan, Huaihua, Shaoyang, Hengyang, Loudi, Chenzhou etc. the positions are in cities, towns and rural areas, depending on the placement.

Responsibilities

- Planning and executing instructional lessons
- Cultivating students' interests in learning English
- Assessing students based on their daily performance
- Organising some activities, like English corner.

Requirements

- Native speakers of English with no strong accents
- Bachelor degree or above
- 21-55 years old
- Internationally-recognized English language teaching certificate, such as TESOL, TEFL, CELTA, or with at least 2-year working experience.
- Previous teaching experience ideal but not compulsory
- Good health, no bad hobbies
- Others: extroverted, patient, responsible and have a passion for English teaching
-
- ◆ For the applicants without internationally-recognized English language teaching certificate or 2-year working experience, HPEAIE will recommend you the training institution that provides certificate training. And the applicants will get refund if they finish the contract successfully.