

Dr. Kwesi Ewoodzie, Local Groups Director 2023-2025

Dr. Kwesi Ewoodzie is the Founder and Director of Culture Beyond Borders. He is a Ghanaian-American, a sociologist, and an interculturalist, with a passion for building bridges between the African continent and the Diaspora. His love for all elements of the African culture makes it easy for him to share the continent with all globally minded individuals, groups, or organizations. In addition to his work with CBB, Kwesi also serves as a strategic consultant, specialist and partner for training and research firms with a focus on networking, establishing relationships with global partners, and conducting workshops and training designed to help create more inclusive and equitable workplaces.

Kwesi holds a bachelor's degree in applied psychology from Ithaca College (NY), and a Ph.D. in sociology/intercultural exchange from the University of Iowa. Kwesi has served as the SIETAR USA conference program co-chair in 2019 and 2020, and previously served on the Advisory Council of the SIETAR USA Board of Directors.
